Greek Orthodox Church Slates Dedication
Dr. Ernest Donlou, President of the South Bay Greek Orthodox Community, announces that on August 23, their recently purchased church site will be dedicated by His Grace, Bishop Demetrius, assisted by Father Billiris of Long Beach, Father Ziatas of Pasadena, and Father Nitsiotis of the South Bay Community.
Following the colorful tent service, which will start at 11 a.m., His Grace will formally dedicate the property as a church site in the ancient Greek Orthodox ritual. Immediately after the dedication ceremony, the church's name will be selected and announced.
At the close of this outdoor service, everyone is invited to a "Name at the Church" spaghetti dinner at the Knights of Columbus Hall at 214 Avenue "I" in Redondo Beach. Price for the dinner which will be served by the youth of the community, will be $1 per adult, children free.
The church site can be reached by going East on Knob Hill in Redondo Beach, about 200 feet past the end of the paved street.

Duo Faces Trial on Robbery of Downtown Store
Trial of Stephen Randazzo, 29, and Ralph Louis Tommarello, 26, on charges of robbing a downtown Torrance drug store, will open Sept. 16 in Southwest Superior Court.
Both suspects, who have a striking physical resemblance to each other, pleaded not guilty at their arraignment, Friday.
Randazzo, a former assistant manager of the drug store, allegedly plotted the holdup and Tommarello was the actual gunman, officers said.
